PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

SYNOPSIS OF BUSINESS LAWS.

Arrest.—Arrest in Civil proceedings lies if the party is about to leave the Province of British Columbia, when the debt exceeds $100.

Assignments.—A deed of assignment can be made by debtor for the purpose of paying and satisfying rateably and proportionably, and without preference or priority all the creditors of such debtor their just debts.

Preferential assignments are void.

Chattel Mortgage.—Can be given by the debtor upon all his goods, chattels, stock in trade, etc., to secure existing loans, debt due or to become due, or to secure the endorser of a promissory note.

If not registered within 21 days from the execution, it then becomes void as against third parties.

If given upon goods, chattels, etc., situate in the district where there is no Registry Office it must be filed in the office of a Stipendary Magistrate who shall forward a copy of it to the Registrar General. The chattel mortgage must be renewed every five years to be valid.

Commercial Papers.—Promissory notes and bills of exchange are negotiable, and are subject to the right of set-off between the same parties, but not if in the hands of third parties, unless received by them after they became due.

Endorsers are not held liable if the note is not duly presented for payment when it falls due and notice given to the endorser when it falls due. A protest is prima facie evidence of presentment. Three days grace is allowed on all promissory notes and bills.

Courts.—All claims for the recovery of a debt or money demand, the amount or balance of which does not exceed $1000 may be sued in the County Court, up to the same amount Supreme Court has concurrent, and above, sole jurisdiction. Non-residents can be required to give security for costs.

Execution.—Can be issued after judgment. Sheriff may sell five days after levy. Lands can be sold when judgment is above $100, and Fi Fa against goods returned nulla bona.

Exemption.—Personal property is exempt from forced seizure or sale to the extent of $500. Debtor is to exercise caution as to goods he wishes released and obtain judge's direction to sheriff allowing same. Land, when registered as to homestead, is exempt to the value of $2,500.

Interest.—The legal rate of interest is six per cent., where no agreement exists, but any rate of interest may be stipulated between the parties.

Judgment.—Effects, lands and interests in lands from the time of registration, must be registered every three years.

Judgment may be confessed in person or through an attorney.

Limitations.—On simple contract, action must be commenced within six years from the time the debt falls due; on bond judgments or under seal contract within 20 years after same becomes due. No new promise will take an obligation out of these periods unless in writing.

Married Women.—May hold and enjoy property, both real and personal, whether belonging to them before marriage or acquired by them in any other way after marriage, free from the debts and obligations of their husbands.

They may become stockholders or partners in any bank, insurance company or any other incorporated company and association, as fully and effectively as though they were femmes soles, and may vote by proxy or otherwise and enjoy the like rights as others. They may make deposits of money in any bank and withdraw the same by their own cheque. They may also maintain any action in their own names for the recovery of any wages or earnings, money or property, by the act declared to be their separate property.

Mortgages on Real Estate.—Are void against subsequent purchasers for value unless registered in the Land Registry Office for the district wherein the land is situate.

Replevin.—When any goods or chattels have been wrongfully distrained, taken or detained, they can be replevied by first getting an order from the judge and then by giving bonds to the sheriff who takes them under the writ. A writ of replevin cannot issue from the County Court when the value of the goods seized exceeds $1,000.
